The Rules.

I.

NO Member of the Club, or of the Committee, shall, ipso facto, be or become liable for any amount, or be responsible for any expense or payment on behalf of the Club, beyond that of his Entrance Fee (if any), Annual Subscription, and Library Donation.

Liability of Members.

The Club shall be maintained by the Founder, and all the business of the Club, the domestic, and other arrangements, and regulations for its establishment, and management, shall be conducted by the Founder, who alone shall be responsible for all expenses connected with its foundation, and conduct.

II.

MEMBERSHIP shall be limited exclusively to Fellows and Members of the principal Royal and Learned Societies of the United Kingdom, India, and the Colonies, Academicians and Associates of the Royal Academies, together with the Presidents, Members of Council, Professors, Fellows and Graduates of the Universities, and Presidents, Members of Council, Professors, Fellows, and Members of the various Literary, Scientific, and Art Institutions.

Qualification for Membership.

The

ROYAL SOCIETIES CLUB.

III.

Extraordinary Members.

THE Committee may elect as Extraordinary Members of the Club, Dignitaries of the Church, Cabinet Ministers, Chief Officers of State, Speakers of the House of Commons, Judges, Ambassadors or Ministers Plenipotentiary and their Naval and Military Attachés at the Court of St. James's, Heads of Foreign Missions, Chargés d'Affaires, and Foreigners, Colonists, or others distinguished in Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, and such others as special circumstances may suggest, who may not, at the time of Election, be members of any of the Societies embraced by the Constitution of the Club.

The nomination, election, privileges, and liabilities of Extraordinary Members shall, in all respects, correspond with that of ordinary Members.

The Committee may, at any time, suspend the Election of Extraordinary Members during such periods as they may deem necessary for the convenience of the Club, upon notice of such suspension being posted on the Notice-board in the Hall.

IV.

Honorary Members and Visitors.

THE Committee shall have power to invite, as visitors to the Club, Members of the Royal Family and other distinguished or eminent personages, and to constitute them Honorary Members, either for life, or for such less period as the Committee may, with the consent of the Founder, determine, and the Founder shall have the power of nominating any Member of the Club, as a Life Member, without payment of Entrance Fee, or Subscription.

Members are invited to communicate to the Secretary the names of gentlemen they wish to nominate for invitation under this Rule.

The Honorary Secretary and the Honorary Librarian shall be Honorary Members of the Club during the period they hold office.

Honorary

THE RULES.

Honorary Members shall be entitled, without payment of Entrance Fee or Subscription, to all the privileges of the Club.

V.

EVERY Candidate for Membership, other than Honorary Membership, shall be nominated by two Members of the Club, who shall be held responsible for the eligibility of the Candidate. The proposal of a Candidate shall be sent in writing on the proper form to the Secretary, signed by his proposer.

*Conditions
Candidature.*

The full names, residence, rank, profession, occupation, or other description of every Candidate shall be fully and accurately described, together with his qualification for membership, and such other particulars as the Committee shall from time to time determine.

The name, residence, rank, profession, occupation and qualification of every Candidate and the name of his proposer and seconder shall be entered in the Candidates' Book by the Secretary, and a copy of the entry signed by the Secretary shall be posted in the Club, at least seven days prior to the date of ballot.

If a Proposer or Secunder desire to withdraw his name he may do so by notice in writing addressed to the Secretary.

If the Proposer or Secunder of any Candidate shall have withdrawn his nomination or ceased to be a member, through death or otherwise, the Candidate shall be permitted at least seven days before the date of ballot for election to have another Proposer or Secunder substituted.

No addendum, alteration, or entry may be made in the Candidates' Book by any member of the Club. All information respecting Candidates should be communicated to the Secretary.

No Candidate under the age of twenty-one shall be eligible for election as a member.

No

ROYAL SOCIETIES CLUB.

VI.

Disqualification of Candidates.

NO Candidate shall be eligible for election who at any time preceding his coming up for ballot has been adjudicated a bankrupt, or has made any composition or arrangement with his creditors, under any Bankruptcy Act or otherwise, or has had a Receiving Order made against him, or has been declared a defaulter on the Stock Exchange or Turf, unless the Committee, at a meeting specially convened for that purpose, shall after consideration permit him to be balloted for.

Should a Candidate thus ineligible be admitted to the Club, the Committee shall, if satisfied of his ineligibility, declare his election void, and notice of such declaration shall be sent to him, addressed to him at his last known address. But if application be made by him to the Committee within twelve months from the time of such declaration, the Committee shall, at a meeting specially convened for that purpose, consider his application, and it shall be at their discretion to permit him to be balloted for. In all cases under this rule all legal expenses incurred in investigation shall be paid by the Candidate.

VII.

Rejected Candidates.

NO rejected Candidate shall, except by leave of the Committee as hereafter provided, be again proposed until the expiration of six months from the date of his rejection. When a rejected Candidate is again proposed, notice of his previous rejection shall be given by the Secretary to the Committee.

If any Members of the Committee (not being less than five in number) shall, within two months after the meeting of the Committee, at which any Candidate shall have been rejected, call for a reconsideration of the grounds of the rejection of such Candidate, the Committee shall be specially notified thereof at their next ordinary meeting, and the question shall then be put to the vote whether there there shall be another election; should it be resolved in the affirmative by a majority of the Members present, then the name of such Candidate shall be put up again.

THE RULES.

VIII.

THE admission of Members into the Club shall be by ballot of the Committee, and shall take place on such days as the Committee from time to time appoint. The names of Candidates, when balloted for, shall be taken according to priority of application. No ballot for the admission of Candidates shall be valid unless at least two-thirds of the Committee present at the taking of the ballot for the election of such Candidate shall give their votes. If less than two-thirds of the Committee so present shall vote, the election of such Candidate shall be postponed until such time as the Committee may determine. One black ball in five shall exclude.

*Election
of Members.*

IX.

THE Committee shall be empowered to cancel the Election of any Member at any time within six months from the date of the payment of his first Subscription, and such Ex-member shall not have the right to make any appeal, nor to demand the reasons for such cancelling; but the amount of his Entrance Fee (if any) and Subscription shall be returned to him.

*Cancellation
Election.*

If at any time after the Election of a Member it shall appear that he has been elected under a misrepresentation, or if information as to his character or position shall have been withheld, or that he has ceased to be a Fellow or Member (except by resignation) of any Society constituting his qualification for Membership of the Club, the Committee shall have power to call upon such Member to resign, and in default of his doing so to take such action as they may deem fit.

An

Questions as to permanence of residence or the like shall be decided by the Committee, who shall have the right to decline to place or retain any Member on the list of Country, Colonial, or Foreign Members.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.—The payment of One Hundred Guineas (including Entrance Fee) shall entitle a Member to all the privileges of Membership of the Club during his lifetime.

Every Member not being an Original Member, elected prior to September the first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and Honorary Members, shall, upon election, in addition to the amount of his Entrance Fee (if any) and Annual Subscription, pay One Guinea towards the Library Fund.

Library Donation.

XI.

A TOWN, or Country Member, leaving the United Kingdom may, upon giving notice in writing to the Secretary, become a Supernumerary Member, and pay, during his absence, an Annual Subscription of Two Guineas, commencing at the termination of the current year of his membership, and a Member resident in any of the Colonies or abroad, at the time of his election, shall pay a subscription as, and may be considered to be, a Supernumerary Member until his return to the United Kingdom.

*Supernumerary
Members.*

In case a Supernumerary Member shall return to the United Kingdom within a period of not less than three months prior to the date of his subscription becoming due

for

ROYAL SOCIETIES CLUB.

for the ensuing year, he shall be liable for his full subscription for the current year ; but if he shall return on or after that period, his supernumerary subscription shall suffice.

No Member shall be entitled to Supernumerary Membership, or to claim exemption from the payment of his full subscription, unless he shall have been absent from the United Kingdom during a period of at least nine consecutive months in any year of his Membership.

In every instance of a Member returning from abroad, the date of his return must be formally reported to the Secretary, and the whole (or balance, if any) of the Subscription due from him must be paid within two months of his return, in default whereof such Member shall be considered to have resigned, unless the Committee shall otherwise determine.

XII.

*Change
of Membership.*

A TOWN Member who, by change of residence, becomes a Country, Colonial, or Foreign Member, shall notify the fact in writing to the Secretary, and shall, after the expiration of the current year of his membership, pay the subscription of a Country, Colonial, or Foreign Member (as the case may be).

A Country, Colonial, or Foreign Member who, by change of residence, shall become a Town Member, shall forthwith notify the fact in writing to the Secretary and pay the sum required to make up his subscription for the current year to that of a Town Member.

XIII.

Subscriptions, when to be paid.

A NNUAL Subscriptions shall be payable in advance upon election, and date from the Quarter-day preceding election, and be renewable at the corresponding period annually.

On the election of a member the Secretary shall notify the fact to him, and every new Member must pay his entrance fee (if any) and first Annual Subscription within two

THE RULES.

two months of notification of his election, if he be in the United Kingdom, and within six months if he be out of the United Kingdom. If this rule be not complied with, the Secretary shall report the circumstance to the Committee, and that Member's election shall be null and void, unless the Committee shall otherwise determine.

XIV.

NO newly-elected Member shall be allowed to make use of the Club until his Entrance Fee (if any) and first Subscription be paid.

*Members not to use
Club-house until Subscription paid.*

XV.

NO Member shall be eligible to vote until he shall have paid his Subscription for the then current year.

Penalties for non-payment of Subscription.

The name of any Town or Country Member who fails to pay his Subscription within two months after the date upon which it becomes renewable shall be posted in the Club.

Should the Subscription not be paid within a period of one month from the date of his name having been posted, or should the Member use the Club after his name has been so posted, before paying his Subscription, he shall immediately thereon cease to be a Member of the Club, and he shall not again be eligible for Election, unless the Committee shall otherwise determine.

Any Supernumerary Member who for a period of six months shall have failed to pay his Annual Subscription after the date upon which it becomes renewable shall be considered to have resigned, and his name shall be erased from the list of Members, and he shall not be re-admitted unless he can assign to the Committee satisfactory reasons for non-payment.

Any

ROYAL SOCIETIES CLUB.

XVI.

Resignation.

ANY Member intending to withdraw from the Club shall notify his intention so to do, in writing, to the Secretary, prior to the date upon which his Subscription becomes renewable; and in default he shall not be exempt from payment of his Subscription for the ensuing year, whether he has entered the Club or not.

XVII.

*Insolvent, Bankrupt, or Outlawed
Members.*

IF a Member shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, or shall make any composition or arrangement with his creditors under any Bankruptcy Act, or otherwise, or shall have a Receiving Order made against him, or shall be declared a defaulter on the Stock Exchange, or a defaulter on the Turf, he shall ipso facto cease to be a Member of the Club, and shall forfeit all right or claim upon the Club; but upon application being made by such Member to the Committee, stating the cause of such adjudication in bankruptcy, making of such composition or arrangement, or Receiving Order, or default on the Stock Exchange or Turf, as the case may be, such Member may be re-admitted and restored to his former rights by the Committee at a meeting specially summoned for that purpose, if a majority of two-thirds of such Committee so determine.

In the event of a majority only being in favour of his re-admission, then the name of such person shall be put up for re-admission by ballot according to Rule VIII, free of all entrance fees. All legal expenses incurred in investigating the case shall be paid by the ex-Member applying for re-admission.

XVIII.

*Conduct of Members
&
Expulsion.*

IF any Member shall commit wilful breach of any of these Rules, or introduce into the Club any person whose presence therein shall be detrimental to the interests or reputation of the Club or objectionable to the Members, or if the conduct of any Member either in or out

THE RULES.

out of the Club-house, shall, in the opinion of the Committee, or of any twenty Members of the Club who shall certify the same in writing, be injurious to the character and interests of the Club, the Committee may at once suspend or expel such Member from the use of the Club, and may recommend him to resign ; and if such Member shall not resign within seven days after notice of such recommendation has been given to him, the Committee shall erase his name from the List of Members, and he shall cease to be a Member of the Club : provided that no Member be so suspended or recommended to resign unless a resolution to that effect shall have been passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of the Members of the Committee actually present at a Meeting specially summoned for that purpose.

Provided also that if, upon such Meeting of the Committee so specially summoned, two-thirds of the Committee assembled shall be of opinion that the character or interests of the Club require the immediate expulsion of the Member whose conduct is in question, the Committee may by resolution to that effect forthwith expel such Member.

If the circumstances of the case shall appear to a quorum of the Committee to require the same, they may suspend such Member from the use of the Club until the specially summoned Meeting of the Committee hereinbefore in this Rule mentioned shall have been held.

Should, however, any fifty Members be of opinion that the case of a Member so expelled ought to be reconsidered, and should a statement to such effect, signed by such fifty Members, be forwarded to the Committee within six months of the expulsion, the Committee shall call an Extraordinary General Meeting, to which the matter shall be submitted, and if a majority of not less than three-fourths of such Meeting, which must consist of at least fifty Members, agree to the reinstatement of the Member, he shall be reinstated.

For the purpose of considering the expulsion of a Member, eight shall form a quorum of the Committee.

No

XIX.

Ex-Members no claim on Club.

NO Ex-Member shall have any claim upon the Club. nor shall he be entitled to have any part of his Entrance Fee, or Annual Subscription for the current year, returned to him, except as provided by Rule IX.

XX.

THE LIBRARY.

The Library.

THE Committee for the time being shall be Trustees of the property of the Library, and be vested with the entire control of all or any funds and property given to them or placed under their control, and, subject to any special condition of donation, bequest, or loan may receive and apply any Library Subscription, Donation, or Gifts in furtherance of the general objects of the Library, as they may deem necessary or expedient.

A Collection of Books, together with Maps and other objects of interest, shall be formed under the direction of the Library Committee.

The Members of the Club and the various Societies and Institutions embraced by the constitution of the Club, shall be invited to contribute by loan or donation copies of their published works, memoirs, books of reference, or other useful publications, works of art, maps, pictures, engravings, and artistic or other objects of general and permanent interest, to the establishment of a Library, and the names of the lenders or donors shall be entered in a Book.

Any Books, Papers, or other Documents presented to the Club, or intended to be brought under the notice of the Members, must be passed by the Committee before they are introduced into the Club.

The

THE RULES.

The Library Committee shall have power to make any By-law or Regulation they may deem necessary, from time to time, regulating the issue of books to Members.

Should any book, pamphlet, manuscript, or other property of the Library be defaced or in any way injured or destroyed while in the possession of any Member, the same shall be made good, replaced, or such compensation be made by the Member as the Committee may determine.

The Committee shall cause strict and accurate account to be kept of all subscriptions, funds, and property of the Library, and of all liabilities incurred and disbursements made by them relating thereto.

A Report of the Receipts and Disbursements for the current year shall be posted on the Notice-board in the Hall not less than fourteen days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.

XXI.

THE Committee may grant the use of the Conference Room for Lectures or other Meetings of Members of the Club or of any of the Societies or Institutions embraced by the constitution of the Club, or Members thereof. On such occasions admission to such room shall be by invitation only.

Lectures, Meetings of Societies, &c.

Application for permission to hold meetings must be made in writing, addressed to the Secretary, at least three clear days prior to the date of the ordinary Meeting of the Committee, and at least twelve days prior to the date upon which the Meeting is proposed to be held; such application must state the nature of the Meeting proposed to be held and be made and signed by not less than six Members of the Club, or by the President, a Vice-President, or Member of Council, of any Society in connection with which the Meeting is desired to be held.

COMMITTEE.
